

Teachers' Day Celebration/Workbook Development Evaluation

Padre Valerio Malabanan Memorial School

16 December 2005

Project K celebrated Teachers' Day/Workbook Development Evaluation on December 16, 2005 at Padre Valerio Malabanan Memorial School (PVMMS) from 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. The occasion served as an opportunity for Project K to distribute the modest honorarium to people behind the success of the Workbook Development Project. Selected public school teachers who took part in the said project were invited to grace the occasion. Project K staff, Aileen, Efelyn and Marissa were helped by some volunteers like Cel Rubis, Ning Doble, Carol Basconillo, and Jaeda Abansi during the event.

Ms. Aileen Joy Saul hosted the short program was prepared for the said event. Several guests from the Division Office were also in attendance for the celebration. Unfortunately, Project K's Executive Director, Dr. Corazon Abansi, was unable to make due to prior commitment, however, her daughter, Jaeda Abansi was around on her behalf. Dr. Pamplona's opening remarks expressed his sincere thanks and gratitude to Project K in making possible the development of DepEd Division of Lipa's own set of English workbooks. The most skilled and qualified mentors comprised the pool of writers who conceptualized, created and designed the workbook tailored-fit to the needs, skills and interest of the young pupils of Lipa. This remarks made the Project K people proud of what they are doing, that of assisting the DepEd in strengthening the basic education services for the children and youth of Lipa City specifically in reading proficiency.

A song number from Ms. Jasmin Cuizon delighted the audience. A raffle of tokens from Pizza Hut made the affair more exciting. The much awaited distribution of honorarium and certificate of appreciation highlighted the occasion. A mouth-watering snack from Pizza Hut concluded the affair.
